FINANCIAL SECRETARIAT.

The limit fixed in para 7 of the Compassionate Gratuity Rules raised from Rs. 600 to Rs. 800.

READ—

Government Order No. Fl. 7418-77—S. & A. 252-28-4, dated 1st—3rd April 1929, sanctioning the introduction of a provisional scheme for grant of Compassionate Gratuity to the families of deceased officers and directing, among other matters, that if the amount of gratuity is Rs. 500 and more it may be converted into an Income Policy, etc.

ORDER NO. FL. 1514-64—S. & A. 117-39-1, DATED BANGALORE,
THE 14TH SEPTEMBER 1939.

According to existing orders, payment of the gratuity is made in a lump when the amount payable is less than Rs. 500 and in cases where the amount exceeds Rs. 500 it is paid only in instalments spread over a period of not less than ten years. Experience has shown that the instalments fixed on the above basis have, in several cases, been found to be not large enough to afford adequate relief to the families concerned. With a view to removing this hardship, Government are pleased to raise the limit fixed in para 7 of the existing rules (vide Appendix Q to the Mysore Service Regulations) from Rs. 500 to Rs. 800 so as to permit of the whole of the gratuity being paid in one lump in cases where the amount involved is less than Rs. 800.

2. This order will have effect from the 7th August 1939. An amendment to Mysore Service Regulations will issue separately.

A. N. RAGHAVACHAR,
Secretary to Government,
Financial Department.
